

“Every Town has its own...
Distinct Personality!”

Busselton

Geopraphe Bay, which stretches from Busselton to Dunsborough, and takes in the Margaret River Wine Region, offers something for everyone – from families to couples, adventure seekers to those just wanting to relax.

Busselton

Drive the leisurely loop between Cape Naturaliste and Cape Leeuwin and discover the towns of the region.

Busselton

The seaside town of Busselton lies sheltered on the sweeping shores of Geographe Bay. Boasting 30 kilometres of pristine, white, sandy beaches, the Bay is a place to have fun and relax. Busselton is home to the world famous Busselton Jetty and Underwater Observatory as well as iconic Fig Tree Lane and a smorgasbord of bars and eateries.

Dunsborough

The Dunsborough town centre offers a vibrant range of boutique clothing stores and trendy eateries. Not far away are the secluded and calm waters of Meelup Beach, Eagle Bay and Bunker Bay. During spring, Cape Naturaliste National Park and Meelup Regional Park offer excellent wildflower viewing and whale watching opportunities.

Yallingup

Perched on the hill, overlooking Yallingup Beach, is the township of Yallingup, named after the Aboriginal word meaning 'Place of Love'. Here the calm waters of Geographe Bay give way to a dramatic coastline, famous for its surf breaks including Yallingup Beach, Smiths Beach and Injidup Beach.

Cowaramup

At the centre of the Margaret River Wine Region lies the charismatic town of Cowaramup, affectionately known as 'Cowtown' by locals acknowledging its central place in the dairy industry. Located in close proximity to many of the region's wineries, the town has several cafes and gourmet food outlets filled with local produce.

Margaret River

Situated on the banks of its namesake, Margaret River offers a diverse range of restaurants, cafes and specialty shops. A 7km drive out of Margaret River is the seaside settlement of Prevelly, where the Margaret River meets the Indian Ocean. Here you can watch surfers take on the waves at the aptly named 'Surfers Point'.

Augusta

At the mouth of the Blackwood River, where the Indian and Southern oceans meet, is the peaceful town of Augusta. Whales can be sighted from June through to August, with the area also well-known for its fishing, windsurfing and kitesurfing. Close by, is the majestic Boranup Karri Forest.
