

GREAT LAKES TOURISM PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM 2010/11

Tourism is our largest industry generating over $115 million each year. This equates to $13,000 an hour! (Source TRA). It is everybody's business. The current economic climate, evolving visitor behaviour and the rapidly changing domestic tourism market means it has never been more critical for all businesses and the community to keep up to date with the latest opportunities and work cooperatively to promote the Great Lakes and in turn capture a greater share of the tourism dollar!

WHY YOU CAN'T AFFORD NOT TO BE A PARTNER!

Did you know.....

- » The Great Lakes Website, www.greatlakes.org.au will receive over 1 million page views in 10/11. The site ranks consistently in the top 3 on key Google searches.
- » The Great Lakes site is the only site that combines the convenience of a booking engine with comprehensive visitor information.
- » The Great Lakes Visitor Centres will serve over 110,000 customers in 10/11 with a further 45,000 phone, email & mail enquiries. Visitors can access your brochures and information 7 days a week, 363 days a year.
- » GLT has a significant consumer and stakeholder database that receives our monthly e-newsletter and ad-hoc targeted promotions throughout the year.
- » The Great Lakes events & conference market is growing and organisers are using GLT as a one-stop shop for bookings. Partners will benefit from early awareness of upcoming events & this exclusive booking opportunity.
- » During 09/10, GLT hosted 14 national and international journalists across the region, achieving outstanding press coverage. Partners have the chance to be a part of this.
- » In 10/11 GLT will attend 9 Holiday & Travel Shows promoting the Great Lakes to over 100,000 potential customers in source and emerging markets.
- » 80,000 Great Lakes Holiday Guides & 7,000 Things to do Brochures were distributed last year. Not to mention thousands of partner brochures, flyers and maps.

AS A PARTNER WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT?

Marketing

As a team we are passionate about the area and are keen to promote the region for others to discover. GLT will continue to imaginatively target key customer groups, in both source and emerging markets. We market with the aim of increasing visitor numbers as well as visitor yield. As a partner, you will benefit from the exposure this work generates.

Promoting your Business Online

Website & Listings

The driving force behind the official Great Lakes website - www.greatlakes.org.au is to promote the region and translate web visits into bookings and in turn real visits.

With research showing that more than 45% of all consumers use 'Official' destination websites when making holiday decisions - promoting yourself on greatlakes.org.au is not only a simple process, it is one of the most cost effective methods of expanding your profile.

Many destination web sites are no more than "lists of lists" but your customers are looking for the experience that surrounds their holiday and greatlakes.org.au delivers that experience with a combination of quality information, spectacular images and innovative methods of driving customers to Great Lakes businesses.

greatlakes.org.au has an online booking engine which allows visitors to search, book & pay for accommodation, activities and attractions. (Compatible with all mainstream reservation management software eg. SiteMinder). As a partner, GLT will work with you to create your webpage. Your web content, number of pages, images etc is dependent on your partnership level.

Online Competitions

Competition pages are some of the most popular pages on websites. GLT has created positions within our website that allow us to promote competitions on the behalf of partners.

Special Offers

Special offer and incentive pages of the website are very popular. Partners can benefit from participating in our Hot Deals & Specials Campaign. This campaign allows partners to post special offers and hot deals on the website and within our monthly e-newsletter. The aim being to not only promote ideas on where to stay, where to go and what to do but to provide a real cost-saving incentive and give visitors an added reason to visit.

'Experience Great Lakes' Consumer E-Newsletter

Since its launch the 'Experience Great Lakes' Consumer E-Newsletter has proved to be one of our most popular methods of promotion. The monthly e-newsletter is sent to our database of over 3,000 email addresses. Recent database segmentation work will allow for even more effective targeted campaigns this year.

Events & Conferences

The Great Lakes events/conference market is growing. Increasingly organisers are using GLT as a one-stop shop for bookings. On greatlakes.org.au the event pages are some of the most visited. With destination competition increasing, events and conferences are where the Great Lakes can create a point of difference. We have unique venues, settings and a wide range of accommodation options. We are currently working with event management companies like Elite Energy, Rapid Ascent and Complete Sports Marketing and International Associations such as Rotary, bringing events and conferences to the region.

We need to create greater awareness of the range, quality and diversity of experiences we have to offer. At the same time we need to enhance and promote the 'badge value' of the "Great Lakes" experience in order to compete more effectively with other destinations and win more of the tourism dollar.
