AGNES WATER AND THE TOWN OF 1770: RELAXATION DESTINATIONS.

With rural hinterland, a unique history, secluded beaches, untouched National Parks and access to the Great Barrier Reef it's no wonder that Agnes Water and the Town of 1770 are some of the fastest growing and popular tourism destinations in Queensland. The Agnes Water/1770 district is in the midst of a development boom and is set to become the resort heartland of Queensland, the state's true relaxation destination.

While the Agnes Water/1770 area currently possesses only one resort, six developments are in the pipeline which will provide luxurious and indulgent resort getaways catering for a variety of budgets. However, the vicinity is not short of exclusive, luxurious accommodation for those travellers keen to unwind and escape the real world.

1770 Beach Accommodation specialises in opulent, specially selected holiday homes appealing to the indulgent traveller. Exclusivity is the essence of this service which strives to provide properties that are unique and the epitome of style and sophistication. The jewel in 1770 Beach Accommodation's crown would have to be Rocky Point Estate. The Estate is your own private resort perfect for the peaceful or intimate getaway. Completely secure and restricted, decadent features of the property include tennis court, pool, cabana, uninterrupted views of the ocean and access to a private beach.

Shutters on the Beach, situated in Agnes Water is a cluster of select, stylish beachfront homes with private beach access. It offers beach-style living for those who prefer a little luxury. Homes are set on three levels and decked areas provide the perfect place for outside dining, ocean view and sun baking.

For those wanting to impress a loved one, Sunbird Gardens provides the perfect place to relax, indulge and explore. Set in lush tropical gardens, each of the three detached single bedroom holiday villas feature a private gazebo with spa and bar-be-que. Just a short stroll from the beach and restaurants, couple can explore the 1770 area together.

The Agnes Water/1770 area also offers the architectural enthusiast exclusive properties in which to relax and enjoy. The Whale House is a well known architecturally designed property whose name is derived from its whale shaped roof. The house is designed so that all rooms enjoy magnificent ocean views. Situated just 100 metres from the beach and Town of 1770 marina, The Whale House keeps its standards high. Patrons have access to a heated pool, private terrace with bar-be-que, all the mod cons and even a parents retreat with private ensuite and spa.

The Beach Shacks, in the Town of 1770, is another architectural marvel. The self contained Balinese styled bungalows feature opulent tropical architecture which gives the shacks a casual and beachy feel to transport patrons into an instant state of relaxation. Situated on the edge of Bustard Bay, guests can enjoy uninterrupted views of the ocean from their private deck while preparing a feast of on the bar-be-que or kicking back on the day lounge or hammock. The Beach Shacks is located close to beaches, restaurants and the 1770 Marina.
